

Ever Feel Like You Know More than your IT Consultant?

Why should you pay high fees to teach another company's employees about IT?

You should expect that your IT consultants already know what they're doing.

At Liveware, we believe that experience counts. All of our consultants have at least 15 years of hands-on experience with a variety of companies, projects and technologies.

We understand business as well as technology. So we're better able to help you design a process to deliver results.

From Accounting and Finance to Human Resources and Customer Service, Liveware can help. We're specialists in:

Database Development
Reporting Systems
Training
Application Integration
